Connection & Commitment: LIVE

Join us for an hour of unity and inspiration in preparation for Gimmel Tammuz, at a unique Chassidische Farbrengen live webcast.

The Farbrengen will feature Rabbi Mendel Kaplan of Toronto, Rabbi Yosef Chaim Kantor of Thailand, Rabbi Berel Lazar of Russia, and Rabbi Yehuda Leib Schapiro of Miami.

The live Webcast will include a special guest interview with an individual featured in JEM's new book "My Story", who will share his personal encounter with the Rebbe.

Tune into www.chabadwestorange.com/orvechom for the live feed.

Anniversary of Passing of The Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, of righteous memory

Traditionally, this is a day for reflection, learning, prayer, re-commitment and, above all, positive action.

3 Tammuz guide: www.chabadwestorange.com/3tammuz

It is customary to visit the Rebbe's Ohel, on the Yahrzeit.

The Ohel is the resting place of the Rebbe and his father-in-law, the sixth Rebbe, Rabbi Yosef Yitzchak Schneersohn, of righteous memory.

Located in the Old Montefiore cemetery in Queens, N.Y., the open-air structure is a place where people go to pray to G-d, request blessings, and connect with the deep spiritual energy of the Rebbe.

There is a nearby visitors' center that includes quiet places for study, prayer, contemplation and letter-writing; guest rooms; dining facilities; bathrooms; and a staff ready and willing to help you with whatever you need to prepare for your visit.

Address: 226-20 Francis Lewis Blvd, Queens, NY 11411

SURVIVAL OF A NATION

Exploring Israel through the Lens of the Six-Day War 1967 – 50 YEARS – 2017 HISTORY. CONTROVERSY. DEBATE.

Lesson Four

Monday, June 26, 7:30pm

Occupied with Peace:

On the Viability of Land for Peace

Israel's pre-1967 borders subsequently became known as the "Green Line," to distinguish them from territories captured during the Six-Day War. Israel immediately offered to return her newly-acquired territories in exchange for lasting peace, but the Arab world rejected the offer. Subsequent attempts at exchanging land for peace have failed to resolve the issues surrounding these territories. Should Israel hold on to them no matter the cost? Is there an authentic way to trade land for a lasting and sustainable peace?

What to Do on 3 Tammuz

On the anniversary of a tzadik's passing, all the light that he ignited in this world—his teachings, good deeds, and everything in which he invested his life and being—all this shines brightly, so that anyone connected to him can receive blessings of life, happiness and wisdom.

How should we spend such a day? How do we make that connection? Here are simple suggestions of ways to connect on Gimmel Tammuz:

Learn: Best connections are mind-to-mind. Make some of those by visiting our special collection of essays, videos and a live online class—and plug your mind into the Rebbe's ideas.

Pray: Make the light real. On the evening before, light a 24-hour candle, as is customary on the anniversary of a close one's passing. Even if you don't regularly attend services, try to get to your local Chabad House the Shabbat before, and/or on the actual day.

Give: Partner with one of the Rebbe's institutions, either at home, in Israel, or abroad, by making a donation that day.

Do: Check out the Ten-Point Mitzvah Campaign that the Rebbe initiated. See how you can expand your involvement in any of those mitzvahs. Encourage another Jew to do the same. As the Rebbe would often say, any one mitzvah can transform the entire world.
